

Dear foreign colleagues!

RUSTIME Association is a most authoritative and respected non-profit organization in the Russian Federation for protection the rights and interests the owners of timeshare products and participants of the timeshare industry.

The main goal of the RUSTIME Association is to support and develop the infrastructure of the modern tourism industries in Russia and integrate the Russian tourism into the world tourism system.

RUSTIME is called to assist citizens who own timeshare certificates to defend their rights, provide information support, organize educational and awareness-raising programs aimed at improving the level of services on the Russian timeshare market and at gaining them a strong international reputation.

An important activity of the Association is to promote the formation of a common strategy for development of the club holidays and tourism infrastructure with involvement of public authorities, socially responsible business and civil society structures as well as unification and coordination an efforts of owners of club holidays products (timeshare), experts and consultants (lawyers, representatives of the hotel business, owners of tourist infrastructure, marketers etc.) in order to exchange experience and information, increase professional competencies.

The Board of Trustees and Expert Councils play an important role in activities of the Association. Thanks to the joint efforts and deep knowledge the RUSTIME is able to solve problems and answer questions arising in many areas of tourism, including the timeshare industry.

It should be noted that RUSTIME, ARDA-ROC and EU ROC are similar in goals, the range of performed tasks and implemented projects. There is only one thing that separates us: the territorial location and legal norms of various regions and countries.

The concepts underlying the work of the RUSTIME Association were developed based on analysis of the situation on the Russian and foreign timeshare markets, study of international experience in the functioning of non-profit organizations in the field of timeshare as well as a review of the existing terminology and contractual framework of the timeshare market.

We appeal to you with a proposal for mutually beneficial cooperation in the following areas:

- 1. Information exchange on legislative regulation and experience in lobbying the interests of timeshare market participants in various federal and regional authorities of our countries.
- 2. Mutual information support on the functioning of timeshare market and its players, international trends, new projects, statistics and analysis.
- 3. Exchange of experience on qualified legal and consulting support for individuals and legal entities involved in timeshare business as well as the practice of protecting interests affected by the rights of timeshare certificate holders.
- 4. Conducting webinars, seminars and round tables to discuss initiatives and new directions in the tourism industry.
- 5. Exchange of experience in technologies for promoting timeshare products and services on international markets.

We will be happy to answer your questions and provide additional information about our association.

Thank you for your attention.

Kind regards,
RUSTIME Board of Directors
